A MODERN—The story of a Modern Woman, by Ella Hepworth Dixon, is the latest phase of the New Woman Series. A young girl takes to cultivating a moustache, wears top boots and comes home with the milk. Her father mildly objects, and she "bashes" him over the proboscis with a jack. Hence these tears. This interesting work for sale at Jacobsen's, 499 Florida.

Mason & Hamlin Co.,
146—Boylston St., Boston
Gentlemen:—The piano has had as eventful a career in some ways as any in Japan, I suppose. The steamer it came on was captured and held some weeks by the Chinese. On arriving late in Japan it had to be transported over sundry railroads, and at last carted on a hand-cart 70 miles over two high mountain ranges by terribly bad roads. Since then it has passed a cold winter and hot summer, both terribly damp. In spite of that, and the fact that it has not been tuned since leaving your warerooms, it retains its pitch and tone delightfully.
Yours very truly,

AFFAIRS IN ITALY.

The new Cabinet.

Its tendency and Public opinion

Kassala Besieged.

The Negus treats with the Dervishes.

Rome, 10th—Prime-Minister Rudini has succeeded at last in forming the new Cabinet, as follows:—
Foreign Affairs—Duke Sermoneta.
Finance—Ascanio Branca.
Justice—Giacomo Costa.
Education—E. Gianturco.
War—General Ricotti.
Marine—B. Brin.
Public Works—C. Perazzi.
Commerce—Count F. Giuccardini.
Treasury—Giuseppe Colombo.
Post-Master-General—On. Carmine.
The Ministers took the customary oath in the Palace of the Quirinal this evening. The composition of the Cabinet is a strongly conservative one. The public await the first measures of the new Government to offer an opinion on the turn in affairs.

The Italian Parliament has been convoked to meet on the 16th inst. and stormy debates are already foreshadowed not only on the state of affairs in Abyssinia but also with regard to international pledges and agreements. At the opening of Parliament Premier Rudini will announce the programme of his Government.

Telegrams received to-day in Paris state that Mahmond Ben Abdullah, emissary of the Dervishes, has entered into negotiations with the Negus Menelick, and that they immediately agreed that the Dervishes shall envolve and besiege Kassala which Major Hidalgo has not yet been able to evacuate with the Italian garrison. These telegrams add that although no formal treaty has been signed between the Negus and the Dervishes, there is an agreement to join forces against the Italian army. The Dervishes have already an army, eight thousand strong, around Kassala.

Telegrams from Massouah bring the assurance that Major Hidalgo can hold out with success against the Dervishes.

Several battalions of infantry and six batteries are in readiness in Naples to leave for Massawah.

The Radical Deputies view with favour the formation of the new Cabinet which will pretty certainly obtain a large majority in both Houses of Parliament. The legislative session will be opened on Tuesday—not Monday.

A very satisfactory trial of the Argentine cruiser Garibaldi was made to-day in the Gulf of Genoa. An average speed of 19 miles an hour was maintained for a considerable time.

LATEST.

A dispatch from Africa states that stragglers from the army routed at Abdi Garimi continue to arrive at Asmara.

The Don Marzio of Naples publishes a telegram from its correspondent at the seat of war, stating that 8000 men of the 17000 under General Baratieri, are still wanting. The same journal asserts that 50 cannon were lost in the recent battle.

The latest news from Africa is that communication has been re-established wtth Kassala. No others news of importance has been received.

THE CUBAN REBELLION.

The Debate on Belligerency.

Senator Hale's Speech.

A Reminiscence of the Civil War.

Demoralization of the Patriots.

Washington, 10th—The debate in the Senate on the Cuban Belligerency is becoming protracted. The Republican Senator Hale, for the State of Maine, still continues to speak in favor of Spain. His lengthy speech does not lack ability. He states that the Cuban Revolutionary Government is a myth that merely exists on paper. With regard to the forces of the patriots, they were but straggling bands of "guerrilleros" that could offer no serious resistance nor make any stand against the Spanish troops: they could never be mustered for a pitched battle. The people of the United States, he said, were being mystified as to the preparations and character of this Cuban rebellion. Senator Hale went further and defended General Weyler from the charges of cruelty made against him: he said that these charges were devoid of foundation. Furthermore, he reminded the Senate that in the Great Civil War the American people considered themselves the only arbiter of the means to quell that rebellion, and Spain should have entire liberty in quashing the Cuban rebellion.

General Weyler has telegraphed to the Government in Madrid that the Cuban rebels are utterly demoralized and are fleeing to the Eastern parts of the island. The Spanish troops are marching in hot pursuit.

The agitation against the United States is calming down here and in all the large cities. This morning the only disturbance reported was in Bilbao, where there was a fight between the mob and the police, twenty of the former and nine of the latter being seriously wounded.

LATEST.

The War-office received this evening a telegram from Habana announcing a fresh defeat inflicted on the rebels to-day near the Santa Rita station in the Province of Matanzas. The insurgents fled to the mountains abandoning their dead numbering 21 as well as a quantity of provisions and ammunition. The despatches that are being received all point to a speedy termination of the rebellion.

General Weyler has decided on moving his headquarters to Matanzas in which Province strong bands of rebels are encamped.

The students of Salamanca marched today through the streets uttering cries of "Death to the Yankees! Long live the army and Cuba Española." A United States flag was subsequen tly burnt by the mob. The University was at once closed by the Governor of the city.

France

The Government of Alsace-Lorraine has resolved to at once commence the construction of a strategetic railway between Metz and Chateau-Salins.

Peris, 10th—M. Pichon, the new French Minister to Brazil, will sail for Rio on the 20th. His chief mission is to arrange the question about French Guyana, and in official circles the conviction is that he will succeed.

Austria

Prague, 10th—The old Czech Party are again actively organizing here and all over Bohemia a vigorous struggle at the next elections.

Germany

Berlin, 10th—The North German Times says that the defeat of the Italians in Abyssinia will in no way affect the Triple Alliance. This same opinion is likewise held in Court and Parliamentary circles.

Count Goluchowsky held to-day a long interview with Prince Hohenlohe, the German Chancellor, but the strictest reserve is maintained respecting the result of the conference.

Belgium

Brussels, 10th—Queen Marie Henriette's health is again bad and she will probably soon go to one of the French Spas.

Turkey

Constantinople, 10th.—The Turkish Government has consented to pay to France a large indemnity, for the sacking, some months ago, of the French Convent at Yeni Diaklen.

Greece

Athens, 10th.—The Ministry finished to-day the elaboration af a scheme for the complete reorganization of the army. The new proposals will at once be laid before Parliament, and also a Bill dealing with the reform of the judicial code.

ECHOES FROM THE WEST COAST

International Rumours

Semi-Official Denials

Cabinet Councils on Finance

Valparaiso, 10th. — The sensational alarms and bluster about the strain in relations with the Argentine Republic continue in the columns of the press and in political circles. The most absurd reports are spread and are believed by the masses.

The Ferro-Carril tries to allay the excitement in a leading article to-day stating that there is not the slightsst foundation to the rumour that hostilities are imminent with Argentina: there are no grounds for the supposition that the peace of Chile is in danger or that Chilian rights have been attacked. No protocols, it adds, have been drawn up. and there are no dissensions in the Moneda in the negotiations with the Argentine Government.

The Ley publishes an interview with the Minister of the Interior which confirms all the assurances of the Ferro Carril. The Ley informs the public that the Cabinet Council hastily summoned the other day in Valparaiso was to discuss the deficit in the Budget. In that Council it was agreed, in view of the increased expenditure voted by Congress, to convert only six millions and thus reduce the shortage. The construction of the cable from Puerto Montt to Punta Arenas was also discussed.

An extraordinary rumor is afloat that the Italian colony in this city and in Santiago intend sending an appeal to King Humbert to remove Count Antonelli from Buenos Ayres. Some papers, commenting on this report, state that Italy is so involved in difficulties that she cannot care for a fresh one in South America! The Italian appeal is to be forwarded by cable.

THE ELECTIONS.

If the elections on Sunday result in bringing into public life some really new, good men, who will make a mark in our politics, and elevate the intellect and debating powers of our Congress, the scrimmage in the Boca which resulted in the death of one policeman, one elector, and one little child of nine years, and some fourteen wounded, may be regarded as the wages of a parliamentary reform badly wanted and cheaply purchased.

It is very sad to think that parliamentary reform in the River Plate can only be purchased by the Remington of the policeman or the revolver of the elector: but as there is nothing perfect in human affairs, we suppose the tragedy of Sunday must be regarded as a trivial matter, and a sort of necessary incident to electioneering in this country. In almost every nation where the people enjoy electoral freedom, elections are attended with rows of more or less magnitude. Black eyes and broken heads are, however, the utmost limits of the disorders, but here in the River Plate, where human life is held cheaper than even in Africa, where every voter carries a revolver, every country rowdy a "facon," if we are permitted to express surprise at all at the shindy on Sunday, it must be rather at its insignificance than anything else.

The result of these elections as given by our colleagues, who have all the official data at their hands, is: that in this city of 700,000 inhabitants only 12,793 voted, and of that number the "Radicales" count 5,258 and the "Civicos Nacionales" 6,965.

These electoral returns for a city so populous as Buenos Aires must be accepted by every thinking, intellectual Argentine as the most unerring proof of the contempt of the people for the institutions which they support.

The returns from the country districts of the Province of Buenos Aires are unfortunately too long for our columns, but they summarize as follows:

Civicos Nacionales	21,569
Radicales	15,540
Nacionales	415

In the details ot these country elections we find in numerous partidos the strong preponderance of Radicals, and, relatively speaking, we discover far more public spirit, far more electoral vitality in any one of our country towns than in the city of Buenos Aires! Now, it is not our object to discuss too closely the many severe questions to which this subject gives rise: we must accept things as they are, and avoid all expressions calculated to offend the Argentine political mind. Our views on this subject may possibly be opposed to some of the most experienced Argentines in the arena, but we do assert that. taken as a whole, the result of these elections is a triumph for the Radical party, a party which but a week ago we all regarded as annihilated, smothered up and extinguished by the coalition influences of the great international question with Chile; and the speech delivered the other night before the hall door of Don Bernardo Irigoyen's house in Calle Florida was for most of us the first signs of the resurrection of the radicals.

We shall leave to others to define the difference that exists between
A camp and a city Radical.
A Porteño and a Provincial Radical.
A camp and a city Civico Nacional.

The present National Government is, generally speaking, admitted to be the best, the honestest and the most energetic in this country for many years; and, without leaning to one side or the other in Argentine politics, we feel bound to say that, in our humble opinion, no Radical Government would be better, and we doubt very much if it would be as good. The triumph, therefore, of the Radical Party would really amount to no improvement; nevertheless, we are free to say that the existence of that party is one of our greatest political necessities.

The splendour of the productive powers of this country.

Its self impulse to rise from the meshes of a crisis brought on by the frauds, swindling and venality of syndicates of public robbers.

Its spontaneous reaction without help or aid from Radical, Civico, or Nacional.

Its unconquered progress, spite of checks, misfortunes and political errors.

Its invincible vitality.

All form so strong a contrast to the poor abilities of the public men who rule it that we scorn to discuss further a subject so enveloped in national humiliation, and we pronounce our verdict that Sunday's election is another proof that this country is far too great for the people who rule it.

If the machines that harvest our crops had the right of suffrage, they would have out-numbered the free and enlightened citizens who voted on Sunday.

BUENOS AYRES WESTERN RAILWAY.

(From the London "Statist.")

We have frequently called attention to the satisfactory traffics being secured by leading Argentine railway companies in comparison with last year. One of the best-situated of the Argentine railway systems, without any connection with the Government in the way of guarantee, has been, and is, the Buenos Ayres Western, which extends into some of the richest agricultural districts of the Argentine Republic lying to the west of the City of Buenos Ayres, into which the line runs. According to the official traffic returns of this Company, in the thirty weeks of its current year from 1st July last, the gross receipts have amounted to £390,150, in contrast with £272,375—an average increase of a little over £4,300 per week. In the current half-year the traffics will go against large receipts for the corresponding periods. Therefore, we think it will be well within the mark if we estimate for the future 22 weeks to end of June an average increase per week of, say, £1,500. This will raise the total receipts for the year to 30th June, 1896, to £687,671, in contrast with £527,896 for the previous fiscal year. We now arrive at the point of what ratio will be shown in the working expenses of the current year, and, for the purpose of forming an opinion as to what ratio to fix, it is desirable to know that the proportion of working expenses to receipts for the fiscal year 1894-5 was approximately 42¼ per cent. Having regard to the estimated growth of gross receipts by £160,000, or upwards of 30 per cent., it may reasonably be estimated that the proportion of working expenses to the gross receipts for the current year will be appreciably less than for the previous year, and we think we shall not be far wrong, and on a conservative basis, if we take the proportion at 40, in contrast with 42½ per cent—in other words, with an increase in gross earnings of £160,060, to assume that not quite one-third of such increase will be absorbed in extra working expenses.

The outcome will be a net traffic receipt of of £412,6111, set out in detail in the table below, to which has to be added the rents received in respect of lines leased to other companies, which are taken as the same as for 1894-5; some interest items, which are likewise taken at the same as for the previous year; and the amount brought forward from 30th June, 1895. The aggregate will be £568,445, from which has to be deducted fixed charges and Preference interest. Here there has been a slight modification as compared with a year ago, from the reason that some of the old bonds have been retired and replaced with 4 per cent. debenture stock; but approximately the total of the fixed charges and Preference interest will leave the Company with £255,000 available for dividend upon the junior capital.

It will be recollected that there is in issue £2,750,000 of Ordinary capital, in shares of £10 each, and £1,000,000 in Deferred shares, likewise of £10 each. The conditions of this capital are that the Ordinary shares shall rank first up to 6 per cent.; thereafter the Deferred shares shall be entitled to receive 6 per cent., and anything beyond the amount required to pay 6 per cent. upon the total of both the Ordinary and Deferred shares shall be divided "pro rata" as regatds these two forms of capital. There is the stipulution, also, that if for three consecutive years distributions of 6 per cent. shall be paid on the Deferred shares, they shall at the end of that time be merged into Ordinary shares. Bearing this in mind, it remains to be said that to pay 6 per cent. upon the whole of the Ordinary and Deferred capital would call for £225,000. Therefore, assuming that the above calculations turn out to be correct, there shonld be a very handsome margin between the £225.000 required to pay 6 per cent. and the £255.281 net sum available for distribution as we calculate. In other words, there will be approximately £30,000 more than requirad for the 6 per cent., and this would give a fair fractional extra distribution if it were resolved to divide up to the hilt. But, bearing in mind the condition of 6 per cent. being required to be paid for three years before the Deferred are merged into the Ordinary, it would be the part of wisdom, in our opinion, if the directors of the Company dealt with this or any surplus in a way similar to what has been done by the Mexican Railway Company—that is, earmarking the proportion of earnings beyond the 6 per cent., and setting it aside to the credit respectively of the Ordinary and Deferred.

As regards the outlook of the future, it is cheerful, inasmuch as the wheat harvest in the Argentine Republic has been good, and the maize harvest is reported to be a better one than last year.

Assuming that, in regard to both Ordinary and Deferred, 6 per cent. only is distributed; and such rate is maintained in the future, the yield to an investor at the present price ot the two securities is approximately £5 2s. 2d on the Ordinary £10 shares, quoted at 11¾ . and £7 5s. 5d. on the Deferred shares quoted at 8¾

The following are the details set out in tabular order. so that our calculation can be followed by those who are interested in the subject :—

LONDON LETTER.

MR. RHODES IN LONDON.

(From our own Correspondent.)

February 5th.

The Evening News of last night says :—

"Mr. Rhodes arrived at Paddington this afternoon. Half an hour before the time for the arrival of the mail train from Plymouth a very large crowd gathered on the platform to greet him.

"A few minutes before the arrival of the Plymouth train the Bristol mail put in an appearance, and as a saloon was attached to it every one crowded towards it, but were to a certain extent disappointed, though not wholly, for as the gaze of the assembled multitude turned towards the door of the saloon there stepped from the carriage the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, who little expected such a greeting, apparently very much surprised at his reception. The crowd gave a cheer as he was recognised, and he raised his hat in response to the courtesy, and, entering his carriage, drove away.

This little relaxation of the crowd over, attention was turned to the train which was steaming in to the Plymouth platform. The saloon was quickly spotted in the middle of a long train, and every eye was turned in that direction, the crowd making towards it as one man.

An excited individual, waving a big envelope above his head, attempted to make his way to the ex-Premier, but four burly porters placed their huge backs in the way of the small Zaccheus, who pleadingly whined, "I must give this to him. Let me pass; do let me pass."

Neither were the efforts of the dozen newspaper men who crowded round any more successful, for Mr. Rhodes was absolutely surrounded by powerful officials who made way for him to his carriage.

Mr. Rhodes, as he alighted, was seen to be dressed in a faded black coat, evidently very much affected by the sea breezes, and with a hat which had seen much deck service on the Moor, and over which the spray has dashed so many times as to make it quite unrecognizable to its original vendor.

He looked the very picture of health. As he stepped out on the platform he visibly shivered at the rush of cold air in his face, but no sooner did he see the kindly faces assembled round his carriage than his face was was lit up by a smile, and an enthusiastic cheer broke spontaneously from the lips of the hundreds there assembled.

Cheer after cheer was raised, and the ex-Cape Premier raised his hat in acknowledgment of the kindly greeting, which was several times repeated until the carriage into which he got had been driven clear out of the precincts of the station.

In the same paper was an account of Mr. Rhodes' voyage from Madeira and of pretended interviews. But as far as Mr. Rhodes is concerned nothing that is stated can be relied upon. He has steadfastly refused here as well as on board ship to make any statement. Mr. Beit his partner and Captain Thatcher have given some particulars in regard to Johannes burg and the action at Krugersdorp, but there is nothing new. The assertions you will see in respect to Jameson being treacherously trapped by lettters forged by the Boers must be set aside for the present. The fact that one of the supposed forged letters to Jameson appeared in the London Times almost as soon as Jameson could have got his copy points to Johannesburg and even Capetown as the places in which these letters originated. No doubt copies of some of these letters fell into the hands of President Kruger. They could have made little difference, as for a long time he had been preparing to warmly receive Mr. Jameson, amidst the cloud of fiction which still obscures recent events in the Transvaal there things seem clear (1) the English filibustars fought against the odds of 6 to 1 for 36 hours, and as long as their ammunition lasted and their guns could be served, and as long as they could sit on their horses. (2) According to Captain Thatcher, who seems to have been the only true and experienced soldier amongst them, had Willoughby used his artillery at the critical moment instead of charging the Boers who only ran away and reformed, he would have got through, but of course, with great loss. (3) It is now quite certain that had Jameson got into Johannesburg the bloodshed would have been much greater in the end, for the uitlanders were not yet sufficiently armed and organised to hold the place against the Boers. Joubert of course knew all about this. Jameson, who wanted to pass as a Clive, must have been blinded by vanity. He is responsible for the lives of the poor lads he led on misled.

Mr. Rhodes will wait upon the Secretary of State for the Colonies to-morrow. He would have been at the Colonial Office to-day, but Mr. Chamberlain had to attend the funeral of Prince Henry of Battenberg. After the interview we suppose Mr. Rhodes's mouth will be opened, and we shall hear his tale. He can scarcely throw all the blame on Jameson. It will be months before the Jameson trial is over and we know the whole truth. The public and the journals are already dividing on the subject on social and party lines. Lines that cover a large area, but likely to converge to one centre. When the old East India Company sent instructions to Warren Hastings they enjoined mercy, and the doing of all things for the praise and glory of God, but their last injunction was always—"send us money."

THE ABYSSISIAN CAMPAIGN.

"PRO ITALIA".

Dear STANDARD,

I peruse in your columns every article of Mr. Alex K. Mac Donald, and I enjoy very much his histories of Sports, Hunts, shooting of elephants, lions etc., but in his articles referring to the Abyssinian Campaign, I find a little of self sufficiency.

I do not doubt the knowledge of this gentleman on Abyssinian territory and men, and his friendship with Ras Makonen (or Makunen) and Menelik, which may justify his sympathies with the Abyssinians, (perhaps he has not travelled Italy and he cannot have sympathies with the Italians); but, as an Italian, I cannot allow without protesting that anybody, whoever he may be, Mr. McDonald or any other, should endeavour to make believe that Abyssinians are more generous than Italians. It is absolutely untrue as MacDonald states in his article of yesterday, that Ras Makonnen, during his trip to Italy was treated as a prisoner (on this subject, Mr. Mc. D. proves to know very little about Italians, their character and politeness as Ras Mackonnen and his retinue were treated very courteously wherever they went, and splendidly lodged and entertained; in a word, he was treated much better than he deserved, "though a descendant of Salomon;" so it is a gratuitous, ingenuous charge that Mr. Mac Donald makes against Italy.

Undoubtedly, this war is a sad thing for Italy, and she pays now dearly for the whim of conquest of "some political men," and it would have been better that, the lump of civilisation and colonization had never developed in them: perhaps they were misled; surely they have misunderstood their mission and committed errors (errare humanum est,) but it is ridiculous to call them "empty-headed politicians."

Deprived of all common sense is the statement that it is improbable that more than 15,000 Abyssiniaus took part in the battle of Amba-Garimi, since it is well known that the entire army of Menelik was there, and that in every battle that has taken place in Abyssinia the Italians were always out-numbered, in the proportion of one to five (as at Coatit, Senafé, and Agardat) when not of one to twenty, if not more (as at Dogali and Amba-Alagi); as regards Amba-Garimi, I cannot conceive why Mr. McD. states that it is absurd that 100,000 Abyssinians took part in the battle, while he states at the same time the Abyssinians would have no difficulty in concentrating 200,000 men!

That Mr. MacDonald is a partial judge in the question is evident, owing to his friendship and sympathies with Ras Makonnen and Abyssinia, but he ought to be sure that, if the Abyssinian forces were only twice as numerous as the Italians, in the battle of Amba-Garimi, in spite of the worse position of Baratieri's army, and that his men were unaccustomed to the style of fighting, he would not have his self-evident rejoicing, as it is easily read between the lines of his article, for the triumph of the Abyssians.

It is sadly true that the Italians were almost annihilated, but not by an enemy vastly inferior, but by a force enormously superior in number.

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.

In a previous article we called attention to the resurrection of the Argentine claim to these Islands, and the opinion of some of our London colleagues that an attempt is being made to bring the Islands within the jurisdiction of the Monroe Doctrine.

One of our London colleagues in discussing the subject says:—

"It was not, until 1765 that Captain Byron took possession of the Falklands on the part of England upon the ground of prior discovery. Six or seven years later the French established a settlement on East Falkland and called it Port Louis, but the Spaniards drove them off. Byron's taking possession came very near bringing on another war between England and Spain. Early in 1766 the English built a blockhouse and landed a garrison, naming the settlement Port Egmont, after the first Lord of the Admiralty, who had been the chief promoter of the project. Three years afterward peremptory notice to quit was served upon the British garrison by the Spanish Governor of Port Soledad, in Buenos Aires. In 1770 five Spanish frigates carrying 1,600 men and about thirty guns appeared to superintend the ejectment. There were two English frigates, and resistance to the Spanish force was plainly hopeless. The English were ordered to leave after 20 days, and, for some reason, not before, and to insure their detention the Spaniards took off the rudder of one of the English frigates. The English took away what they chose, or what they could, of their property, and took a receipt from the Spanish commander for what they left.

When the news of this was brought to England, the public excitement was very great, but it was almost as great over the provocation to war. After a year of negotiation, in January, 1771, King George informed Parliament that the dispute with Spain was settled. The settlement consisted in a disavowal by the King of Spain of the act of the Governor of Buenos Ayres and a promise to restore to the English the port and fort, with all the artillery and stores according to the inventory, but, the Spanish Prime Minister added, "this engagement cannot nor ought in any wise to affect the question of the prior right of sovereignty of the Malouine, otherwise called Falkland's Islands". In this form the concession was accepted by Lord North's Ministry "as a satisfaction for the injury done to the cause of Great Britain".

The opposition at once broke out, and Junius gave expression to it in one of the most vigorous of his phillippics. The rudder of the Favourite played almost as great a part in inflaming the British public as Jenkins's ear had done a generation before. It was insisted that the Ministry should not have allowed the Spanish claim to be re-asserted in the very promise of restitution, that if the Governor of Buenos Ayres had acted without authority he should be not only disavowed, but punished, and that a pecuniary indemnity should have been exacted. Of all these things Junius made the most, and the assault was so effective that Lord North employed Johnson to answer him, as he employed him four years later to support the Ministry against the American rebels in "Taxation No Tyranny".

In one respect the choice was awkward, for the Johnson who was employed to disparage the Falkland Islands and to minimize the offence of the Spaniards was the same Johnson who had employed "the voice of his early genius" in stirring up public indignation against Spain. It must have been with malicious satisfaction that the opposition quoted against the author of "Thoughts on the Late Transaction Respecting Falkland's Islands" such mouth-filling lines as the following from "London," the poem which he had published in the year when Jenkins was exhibiting his ear to members of the House of Commons:

In pleasing dreams the blissful age renew
And call Britannia's glories back to view.
Behold her cross triumphant on the main,
The guard of commerce and the dread of Spain.
* * * * *
Sense, freedom, piety, refined away,
Of France the mimic and of Spain the prey.
* * * * *
Has Heaven reserved in pity to the poor
No pathless waste or undiscovered shore,
No secret island in the boundless main,
No peaceful desert yet unclaimed by Spain?

Neither of the disputants knew anything about the Falkland Islands. Junius did not pretend to know anything, but contented himself with saying that the importance of the place was not to be estimated "from any fallacious insinuations thrown out by men whose interest it is to undervalue that property which they are determined to relinquish". But Johnson commits himself by describing, on the authority of a British shipmaster, "a mass of islands and broken lands, of which the soil was nothing but a bog, with no better prospect than that of barren mountains, beaten by storms almost perpetual." Yet this is the group of islands which now contains nearly 2,000 people, of whom nine-tenths are British, and which raises more than half a million sheep and exports $600,000 of products yearly.

The annual report concerning these islands for the year 1893 has just been issued. The revenue of the year, exclusive of land sales, amounted to £11,450, and the expenditure to £11,388. The prosperity of the islands is wholly dependent on the use of the wast tracts of pasture land for sheep. With the aid which nature affords, with no fear of drought, with no rank vegetation, but, on the contrary, succulent grasses, with an equable temperature throughout the year, these islands have proved to be peculiarly adapted for sheep. The pastoral prospects continue to be of a cheering character. The increase of flocks, the introduction of late years of machinery for boiling down sheep, of machinery for shearing, the use of dip, the more careful shepherding and judicious breeding, have secured a superior quality of produce and larger profits to the producer. Sheep continue to be exported to Chili and Patagonia, for the purpose of stocking the north of the Straits of Magellan, where concessions of land have been obtained from the Chilian and Argentine governments by some of the lessees of the crown lands of the Falklands. All the land is taken up. The flocks now number over 770.000. The total acreage leased is 3,414.166, while the freeholds amount to 758,103 acres.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. PAKENHAM.

We are glad to hear that the ladies of the English Colony have taken steps to give expression to the general regret felt here at the departure of the Hon. F. J. and Mrs. Pakenham, and propose that Mrs. Pakenham should be presented with some token of this regret. As the idea has originated with the ladies, a presentation to Mrs. Pakenham has a special appropriateness, and we have no doubt that it will meet with the sympathy and support of all members of the English community.

A small Committee is to be formed to carry into effect the proposal, but meantime the following ladies have signified their willingness to receive the subscriptions, which will be afterwards placed at the disposal of the Committee.

Mrs. Stirling
Mrs. Mulhall
Mrs. Nuttall
Mrs. Kinch
Mrs. Crowther
Mrs. T. Bell
Mrs. Thursby
Mrs. Bouwer
Mrs. Evans

Miss Georgina Lumb
Mrs. A. C. Brown
Mrs. John Browu
Mrs. F. Carlisle
Mrs. Boadle
Mrs. Mills
Mrs. Barton
Mrs. Tulloch
Mrs. Rigby
Mrs. Fox

We believe the intention is that no subscription should exceed £1, (say $15). It is, however, to be hoped that those who are in sympathy with the idea will not think it is necessary to subscribe this maximum amount.

Though we notice that the proposal originate with the ladies, we are given to understand that they are relying upon the support of the gentlemen of this colony, and indeed many of these have already expressed their intention to subscribe.

THE YELLOW FEVER IN BELGRANO.

Belgrano,
March 10, 1896.

To the Editor of the STANDARD,

Dear Sir,—

Your remarks anent the yellow fever in Belgrano are as cruel as they are unjust, and founded on the views of an anonymous writer in the Diario, it is not surprising that you should be misled.

The press of Buenos Aires, in making an attack on the Intendente and Dr. Señorans, have znaliciously mis-stated and omitted facts to suit their ways, which like the Heathen Chinee's are peculiar.

Some ten days ago, whilst visiting a patient in the yellow fever area, I accidentally discovered the disease, and upon investigation, to my surprise, found that it had already existed unknown to the people or medical men attending the cases for ten days.

Once having thoroughly convinced myself of the existence of yellow fever in our midst, I immediately communicated with the authorities, and within three hours Drs. Penna, Gandolfo, Schatz and Ramallo arrived in Belgrano, and visited the patients with me, corroborating my diagnosis.

The sanitary precautions indicated were immediately put in force, and within five hours the infected square was isolated, the cases of yellow fever under treatment, and disinfection of the whole square commenced.

In spite of all precautions, the plague rapidly spread amongst the inhabitants of the infected houses and threatened Buenos Aires with a recurrence of 1870-71.

I proposed, and seconded by Dr. Ramallo, to remove the sick to the Yellow Fever Floating Hospital in the Outer Roads, and the remainder of the inhabitants of the infected houses to Martin Garcia under observation; that all subsequent cases should be treated likewise, and the infected houses and furniture burnt.

At a meeting at which the Intendente, Dr. Señorans and Sr. Sanchez were present, our proposal was read and accepted in toto and presented to Drs. Alcorta and Ramos Mejia for approval.

The people in the infected area were clamouring to be removed from their infected houses, as either infection or probably death assuredly was their fate. Their joy cannot be expressed when they were informed that the following morning they would be removed to Martin Garcia, and were told to be in readiness to embark at 6 a. m. the following morning. So eager were the people to go that at 5 a. m. they were ready to flee from the plague. So far from presenting the harrowing scenes so vividly depicted by the Press, the river-side had all the appearance of a Pic-nic party; joy and contentment reigned supreme. It was natural to have to encounter difficulties in shipping the sick, the men, women and children; first in carts, then small boats to a "chata," and finally to a small steamer, reminding one of the olden days at the Buenos Aires mole.

Dr. Ramallo and myself safely conducted the sick and healthy to their respective quarters on board the "Doli."

Had these radical measures been adopted at the commencement of the outbreak, which unfortunately had been overlooked, many valuable lives would have been saved and this suburb of Buenos Aires delivered from this invincible scourge.

The promptness and zeal which the authorities have exhibited in helping Sr. Ramallo and myself in localising and eradicating the disease is beyond all praise. In conclusion, I may state that I would be sorry to place in the hands of the authors of the mean criticism in the press the further sanitary arrangements and precautions necessary to rid us of yellow fever, considering that they have tried to make capital out of what might have proved to be a devastating epidemic.

It is so easy to criticise and find fault, but when we wanted help and encouragement, it was not forthcoming from the B. Aires Press.

Michael John Petty.

We see by advices from the Mount that the very useful filly Acacia has succumbed to a severe indigestion. As will be remembered she won a race here last season and would have won the "classic", for which she had been sent up, but for some mistake in the entry registry. She was reported much superior to Esfinge, who ran secoud in that race, and previously had the honour of finishing at Maroñas ahead of the crack Imperio. It is a heavy loss for the stable, which expected to do great things this season up here, having entered her in several "classics."

The "classic on Sunday is the Premio Casares for two-year-fillies, and the following are still left in :—Grisette, Maria Ines, Brise, Belgica, Black Star, Sirena, Colombia, Pas de Quatre, Lady Beautiful, Ingrate, Alarma, Adelina, Gipsy, Itala, Lanterne, Réalité, Axucena, Avanzada, Guerrilla, Varsovia, Marejada, Julia, Signorina, Niza, Satanica, Miss Davenport, Alba II, Rival, Minerva, Chula, Severa, Josefita, Activa and Margot.

A RECORD SCORE.

Reuter informs us that in a pennant match played between Carlton (Melbourne) and Melbourne University on Saturday, the former scored 924, J. Worral (who visited England in 1888) being credited with 415, not out, this being a three day match. The highest previous authenticated score was 920, made by the Orleans club against Rickling Green on Aug. 4, 2188.

THEATRES.

It is not a word of a puff to say that the company that Frank Brown has brought to the San Martin is the strongest circus combination that has been seen in this city. There is not a single bad item, and from what Frank says, the perbest he can give. The first notable act was that of Mr. Clark, in a juggling act on horseback, which in some respects bordered on the marvellous. His various tricks cannot be detailed in so short a notice, but must be seen to be believed. The sisters Cooke on the wire are far away in advance of any similar performers we have seen. Mlle. M. Godfrey, who has come with a grand reputation, fulfilled all expectations and jumped into favor at once. She is a most daring as well as clever horsewoman, and both in her first act, in which she turned sommersaults on horseback, and in the second, where leaning from her horse, she picked up a handkerchief from the ground, she created a great sensation and was recalled many times. The tumbling act by the Jacopi family was first rate. The flying trapeze act by the Fernandez was excellent and much applauded, as was also Mr. Clarke on his bare-back steed. Frank Brown's entree was the signal for a burst of applause which lasted some time. He introduced one of his great novelties a terrier that he said was English, although the mother and father were Scotch. This wonderful little animal turned somesault. Miss Taylor made her re-appearance, amidst great applause, and exhibited her highly trained, and very clever horse "Ali."

The performance concluded with an extraordinary act in a glass tank, filled with water, by Miss Florence and Mr. Dickenson, who ate, drank, played cards, and sang under the water. Mr. Dickenson finishing by remaining under water for two minutes and forty seconds. Tony must not be forgotten. He is one of the best we have seen.

It is almost needless to say the house was full. The people were packed like sardines in a box, and among the enormous audience we noticed the Brazilian Minister, the United States Minister. Gral. Lavalle and others.

In conclusion we must say that Frank Brown deserves all the success he is sure to obtain for bringing such a Company to Buenos Aires.

In this column yesterday, we gave a short notice of the approaching debut of the Tomba Company, which will take place next Wednesday in the Victoria Theatre. We are now enabled to place before our readers a list of the various works contained in the repertoir. From this, it will be seen that the Company is so large that they can perform Opera and Operettas, and it is certain that Señor Ciacchi will receive the support he merits.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Stickiness' was the order of the day yesterday. The dash of rain on Monday night made the atmosphere sticky. If one met a creditor in the street he looked at you as if you meant to "stick" him. The mud was sticky: the handles of sticks, umbrellas and beer "bocks" were ditto. The news was sticky: nothing startling from any quarter, except that most unfashionable thoroughfare Calle San Juan, where a case of Yellow Jack was reported in the morning, and made the whole city jump; but it proved to be something like the interesting case of the lady we referred to yesterday. The Chilian papers are still stickling at the Prensa's ultimatum: but "abuelo" Barros Arana has not opened his mouth again yet, which is always something gained.

The grateful news was announced yesterday that Dr Zorrilla, Minister of the Interior, has quite recovered and will resume his high post next week. There are a number of "asuntos importantes" awaiting his return to his post, as his "locum tenens" the Minister of Foreign Affairs, has had neither time nor inclination to meddle with them during his absence.

We are requested to call attention to the notice from the English Literary Society in reference to the appointment of Mr. Chevob as its new Honorary Treasurer.

Our round-the-corner friend Mr. Teneriffe Morales was pleased to tell us yesterday that we were in Mexico or the moon the other day when we announced his appointment as sole agent in the Plate for the great Cairo cigarette makers Acapulco and Co. The name of the firm is D. G. Georgacopulo and Co. This certainly smacks more racy of the soil of Cheops; but our first attempt at it was n't so very bad after all, considering the big mouthful of alternating vowels and consonants.

Fresh case of yellow fever were reported yesterday in Belgrano, and the patients are to-day to be taken to the floating hospital.

The funeral of Professor Ryan, which took place yesterday morning at Caballito, was very largely attended. The Revd. J. W. Fleming B. D. officiated, assisted by our venerable friend the Revd. Dr. Smith, A. M.. The attendance was so large that the house was hardly able to accommodate all the friends. The cortege proceeded by the Bella Vista road to the Chacarita, where many other friends awaited it at the portals of the British Cemetery.

Most willingly we comply with the request of an old and valued subscriber to publish the remaining verse of "Kitty of Coleraine," ascribed to the pen of Mr. Donovan of Bundoran, an ancestor of our ex-Chief of Police, Dr. Donovan. Here it goes :—

I sat down beside her, and gently did chide her,
That such a misfortune should give her such pain;
A kiss then I gave her, and before I did leave her,
She vowed for such pleasure, she'd break it again;
It was hay making season, I can't tell the reason,
Misfortune will never come single tis plain;
For very soon after poor Kitty's disaster,
The devil a pitcher was whole in Coleraine.

Our Mar del Plata Secretary writes us that now is the time for STANDARD subscribers to take a run down, as the Grand Hotel, Cano Hotel, and the Royal Hotel have all reduced their charges. Their rooms are superior to those of the Bristol, and at ½ the price. Several English families have arrived at these hotels within the last few days, and the Rambla is again crowded with English visitors.

All the passengers that were in quarantine on Flores Island, and had such glorious times on that sweet Island of Calypso (500 by some of the Italian steamers) were liberated yesterday, all in the most glorious health and sorry to leave the island before the new Italian opera company, expected to-morrow, arrives. A band of music will await the prima donna on the stone mole of the Island and play for the beautiful "coristas"

"Where are now the hopes I cherished."

We all regret the resignation of Mr Balbin, the Provincial Minister of Hacienda, who has for the last two years so patiently toiled and worked to make both ends meet and square the circle of the Provincial finances. He paid off all the pressing demands on the Provincial Treasury and leaves office with a decent surplus and cash balance on hand. Mr Balbin comes of a good old stock. His father Don Francisco Balbin, was one of the most respected and esteemed native gentlemen in Buenos Ayres. He founded the Provincial Mortgage Bank, and so long as it was under his management it flourished Governor Udaondo will find it hard to replace his retiring Minister, as it requires great moral courage on the part of any of our public men to take charge of the ruined finances of the Province of Buenos Ayres.

In another column we publish an interesting communication of Dr. M. J. Petty, on the yellow fever cases in Belgrano and the precautionary measures adopted by the Health Board. The strictures of the popular doctor do not affect the STANDARD, since we carefully stated that the complaints against the Board were made by a leading morning colleague. Belgrano people will be glad to hear that Dr. Petty has resumed his practice, after an interruption of a week, caused by his attending the yellow-fever cases in that suburb, and involving disinfection, fumigation, and the burning of several suits of clothes, linen, boots, stockings, etc.

Anthony Hope's Comedies of Courtship is well worthy perusal, "trivials light as air" perhaps, but written in his quaint, easy style, with a great undercurrent of humour on a surface flow of domestic philosophy. His picture of the philosopher crucifying fallacies is very neat and keen. The English Book Exchange has a few copies out.

A sad tragedy came to light yesterday morning at the corner of Avenidas Cesares and Sarmiento, where an aged German couple, the man 65, the woman 45, were found lying dead, each with a bullet through the temple. It is supposed that the old man shot his wife first and then himself. Their name is said to be Herfeld.

The news from Rio about the yellow fever at Rio on board the Italian cruiser Lombardia continues to be simply appalling. Of her crew, 235 men have been attacked, 104 have died, and 75 are still sick. Seldom has there been such disease on board a man of war.

Members of the Tigre Boat Club are reminded that all entries for boat and canoe races at the Regatta to be held on the 25th inst. must be sent to the Hon Secretary, Mr. W. E. O. Haxell, Rivadavia 423, on Saturday 14th inst. before 5 o'clock at the latest. Entries for swimming, diving, upset canoe and tub races can be made on the day of the Regatta.

The further details of the battle of Adua to hand yesterday show how splendidly the Italians fought. Colonel Albertone was literally hemmed in by ferocious Choans and was cutting his way through them when he fell. His last words were "Muoio—avanti!" A true soldier's death.

Good news for the N. G.'s under orders for Curumalan. All the tents will be ready and delivered to the War Office on the 31st inst. There will be 10 for the generals, 40 for colonels, 80 for majors, 400 for other officers and 9000 for the rank and file.

The Chilians are not to have all the German officers to themselves. Yesterday, ex-Lieutenant George Von Ventzky-Peterskyle, of the German Army, was given a commission as Second-Lieutenant in the Argentine Army.

The navy is going ahead too. Some 23 aspirants for entry into the Naval School have successfully passed their examination.

There was scalping hurricane at Guamini on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. It played havoc with walls and roofs, and totally demolished that philanthropic institution the ball alley, but the local undertaker did not make a cent out of it.

Engineer Luiggi has arrived back from his fortnight's visit Southwards. He is quite in love with Bahia Blanca. Why the Charles Dickens and Vasco de Gama did he not go on to San Blas? He has simply left out the part of Hamlet, as he will find out later on.

Last night Miss Cecilia Grierson was presented with a pretty flower stand and an ornamented plant by Dr. Señorans, in the name of her nurses who are attached to her class in the Asistencia Publica, as a token of the very high esteem in which they all hold her. Dr. Señorans made a very nice speech in presenting the testimonial, and Miss Grierson replied in felicitous terms, expressing her thanks for the present, which was quite unexpected. The Lord Mayor also spoke, and paid a high compliment to the young lady nurses, and asked them if they would volunteer in case of an epidemic. To a girl they all said they would, and at a moment's notice, to which his lordship replied gallantly with more compliments to the fair and plucky young ladies.

"Dear STANDARD:

"There is an argument cropped up between some English workmen here in the works and they wish your decision on it. The question is. If a cubic yard weighs a ton, what will half a cubic yard weigh?

"By answering this you will oblige yours truly.

W. H. C.

We call on some kind reader to answer the above for us, as we have scruples about making such abstruse calculations during Lent.

In illustration of the cunning of madmen the following good story is told. A naval officer at Philadelphia developed a dangerous form of madness and, after an examination by several physicians, it was decided to place him in an asylum near that city. Due arrangements were made by his brother, and one afternoon he took him for a drive and went directly to the asylum. Our madman said nothing, but was perfectly cognizant of what was going on. He quietly accompanied his brother, and when they arrived at the Asylum he quickly opened the door, jumped out and, taking the director aside said to him: "I bring you my brother as arranged, but as he is sometimes violent he may resist entering, so it will be well to have proper assistance." The director replied "That will be all right. We are used to such gentlemen here." The madman then added: "I must warn you that one of his manias is that I am mad and that he is going to have me shut up." "All right,', again responded the director. Accordingly the sane brother was promptly seized and taken into the asylum, his mad brother accompanying him and trying to calm him. Afterwards, thanking the director and recommending his brother to his careful attentions, he jumped into his carriage and returned to town, and disappeared for parts unknown. The sane brother's protestations were of no use at first, but at last on the following day he succeeded in inducing the director to send for the physicians who had signed the certificates and, of course, on their arrival they told the director that he had shut up the wrong man. It took the police a week to find the madman.

Ho! Ho! That mutiny in the Military School at San Martin the other day has had rather serious consequences for some of the cadets. Two have been condemned to serve as common soldiers in the Line, for six years. one to six months' imprisonment, two others to three months, and another has been expelled. It seems to us that such severity of punishment is absurd in the case of a pack of schoolboys, and the War Minister will probably quash the whole thing, as the Consejo de Disciplina have exceeded their powers in inflicting such punishment.

There is a knotty case at present before the law courts at Montevideo. A General in the army died some months ago, and now three ladies have turned up claiming his property, viz, a daughter of his first wife, his second wife "in propria persona", and his third ditto. The General started in the matrimonial business on a small capital in the year 1843, and in 1847 was married a second time to the same lady, owing to his having given a wrong name, (accidentally or on purpose) at the first marriage. Eighteen years later the General came over here and committed bigamy. Wife Two found out the state of the case and petitioned for a divorce, but stopped it on the death of Wife One. She is now in the field fighting alike the daughter of Wife One and Wife Three and her son. It is a precious funny case.

John Bull and Madama La France have resumed their old flirtation. It was President Faure's wish to pay the highest public honours to Her Majesty this year on her visit to France, but the death of Prince Henry of Battenberg and the strict icognita Her Majesty wishes to preserve necessarily put it out of the question. President Faure, however, intends that these public honours shall be paid to the Prince of Wales on his visit to Paris next week. The Prince has for years been styled "the most popular man in Paris", as his feelings towards Germany are popularly supposed, rightly or wrongly, to be those of every Frenchman from the Pas de Calais to the Mediterranean, from Britanny to the eastern frontier. If he consents to a public reception, there will be a Royal racket indeed in the beautiful capital of beautiful France.

The old tune! There is two years' service in the Line in store for some thousands of 20-years-old National Guards. In spite of all the warning addressed to them, they or their parents evidently believe that there is still enough of the bad old system left to enable them to escape the consequences of their non compliance with the law. They are about to find out their mistake. One would imagine that lads with any spirit in them would be glad of the chance of the novelty and excitement of an autumn campaign of mimic war in such a delightful spot as Curumalan. The lot of the skulkers may now be cast in less pleasant places.

The reported discovery of the North Pole was the absorbing topic in Europe on the sailing of the Pacific steamer "Iberia." A Siberian farmer who telegraphed the news, says that Dr. Nansen, in company with Dr. Malone, has reached the North Pole and has found land in that region. Nansen is on his way back, but Dr. Malone remains at the Pole until the Governor of Yakutsk sends up a party of explorers to help him. Dr. Nansen has reached Ust Yansk at the mouth of the Yana, and a more complete account of the expedition is hourly expected by telegram from Mr. Kincaid, who also accompanied the Nansen expedition and has remained with Dr. Malone to hold possession of the North Pole.

The portly Lord of Hatfield has another foreign mess on hand. The high and mighty republic of Colombia has actually turned out the British Minister, Mr. Jenner, or, what is the same thing, has refused to treat with him any longer. The excuse given is that his manners towards the President and the Minister of Foreign Affairs are so rude and overbearing that they really cannot stand him any longer. The real reason, however, is the strong support given by the Minister to the exorbitant claim for damages against the Government by Clark, Punchard and Co., the railway contractors.

We have dates from Panama to February 13th, but there is very little news in the papers. The Canal is going slowly ahead. At Guayaquil the drought has caused fears that the cacao harvest will be damaged. All the pastures along the littoral are withered and cattle are suffering greatly. The Director of the Christian Brothers' schools in Quito, and some members of that organization, have asked for a passport to leave the country. The President of the Republic promises to defray all the expenses of these gentlemen's voyage, and it is possible that it may be effected. Nicaraguan news reports that President Zelaya has given orders that all the war material purchased in Europe by Gen. Alfonso and which had been stored at Leon, be taken to Managua, Capital of Nicaragua, immediately. This is generally regarded as a wise precaution on the part of the President, who seems to fear an outbreak owing to the financial troubles that prevail.

The Capital of Rosario says that the bad harvest has played such havoc this year with bucolic interests in Santa Fé that there are very hard times ahead for the farmers. This is one of the anomalies of this blessed country. While Cape Court is booming Argentines on the strength of this country's enormous production, a good proportion of the toilers who have wrested that production from the earth find themselves enveloped in blue rum.

Tuesday, March 10th 1896.

Gold Premium.

FIRST RING 203.80%
SECOND RING..... 204.20%

Afiairs in the gold market ruled comparatively dull this morning, but the premium was very steady. The market was not much impressed by all the warlike alarms telegraphed from the West Coast. About nine hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands during the first ring. Business for cash embraced four hundred thousand dollars ; the premium opened at 203.30%, rose to 203.90%, and closed at 203.80%. Two hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month ; the premium opened at 206%, rose to 207%, and closed at 206.50%. A fair amount of business was posted for the fortnightly settlement on the 14th ; about two hundred thousand dollars were sold at same rates as for cash. Seventy thousand dollars were sold for the end of April at 209.50% to 211%, the premium closing at 210%. The market closed very steady for cash and for time bargains, the contango ruling heavy.

National Cedulas F advanced to 82.90, a small business done. A small amount of Municipal Bonds changed hands at 79 and of Internal Bonds at 75. Sansinena shares were quoted at 65 and Catalinas at 4¼. A few Spanish Bank shares were sold at 111.

The money market continued very tight on and off 'Change. The "pase" for end of month and longer dates is comparatively heavy and shows the squeeze in many quarters. At the banks paper bills are quoted hard at 8¼ to 9% ; gold bills nominal at 7%.

48¼ d. on London,
5.08¼-5.09 fcs. on France.
5.09¼-5.10 fcs. on Belgium.
4.12 to 4.12½ mks. on Germany.

The exchange rate in Rio Janeiro today was very erratic. It opened at 8⅝ d., rose to 8⅞ d., and closed at 8 13/16d., no drawers.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day :—

$ 405,900 for cash at 303.30-20-50-70-60 80-70-60-50-70-50-40.50-60-70 80-70-80-90-80-70-80-50-60-80 70-60-70-303.80.

Things up country have been very quiet of late, from a commercial stand-point at least, the elections having caused a complete suspension of all business. In Mendoza we see that the expansion of the taxes has driven a number of houses into liquidation, so that the auctioneers are doing a roaring business selling off the stock, whilst those houses which hold on still have round-robined the Government to temper the wind to the fleeceless lamb. The Banco Provincial de Mendoza is reported to be doing well, lots of business and good profits. A number of buyers have arrived over from Chile to look up fat steers, business in this line being very brisk, over a thousand head gone forward during past few days.

In Santa Fé, where the drought was beginning to give cause for some anxiety, advices report a solid downpour that will do immense good to the camps. The Government has solicited the good offices of the Centro Comercial in distributing wheat-seed amongst the colonists. The Anglo-Argentine Tramway seems in a fair way of changing hands, the proprietors having received very favourable proposals from one of the companies here. The settlers on the Chaco frontier complain of the removal of the garrison, as they will be at the mercy of all the Indian marauders that abound in the neighbourhood,

The distinguished Italian engineer, Mr. Luiggi, reports the Tandil granite to be first-class, and will recommend its use in the fortification works about to be started at Bahia Blanca. This is good news for Tandil, more men, money, and movement, things that will fit in very handily.

Neat Gladstone bags were handed round to-day by Mr. Eugenio Mattaldi, announcing removal of his well known saddlery business to corner of Avenida de Mayo and Chacabuco.

From Guamini there is a stiff bill o complaint against the police, who are accused of looking on quite indifferently at cattle-lifting, illegal distraint and other items of like nature. Don Narciso is not the man to brook a very long continunce of this business, and as the probability is that he knows nothing at all about it, we call his attention to the fact. A mild inquiry can not do much harm any way.

There is no lack of movement about Bahia Blanca owing to the activity with which the preparations for the Strawberry Railway are being pushed ahead, and full head of steam on mowing the harvest. The railway ran four special wheat trains yesterday, and there are four sailing vessels and two steamers waiting at the mole to load; the big deposit is empty, when this time last year it was quite full; hands are badly wanted and $4 wages offered. The sidings for the material deposit of Strawberry line are already made and the engineers hard at work on the surveys at the Colorado which will be the section first in hand; within a month a million quebracho, sleepers, are expected from Colastiné, and as the wharfage space for landing is limited the arrival of materials from England will be delayed till June, which gives time to get off the sleepers. There is great demand for lands at the port, but neither the Company nor the Government will sell. The Company is about to run up the houses for the hands to be employed on the new line, behind the Almacen Naval. During the past two days there have been heavy rains which has made the footing round the port very precarious and done some damage to wheat parcels not under shelter. During the month up to 8th inst. 5,000 tons of wheat were exported.

The cables from London to-day give the Funding loan quotations at 82¼ and P. Work loan at 74¾, which shews a fall.

We must congratulate our colleague the Produccion Argentina on its progress, several of the Provincial papers have reproduced some of its principal articles, This is not to be wondered at, as the chapter on the export of live-stock is a matter of much moment to those interested. In fact the "revista" contains so many important items that it is utterly impossible for us to mention them all.

Advices from the Mesopotamia report great demand there for fat stock and little to be had, owing to the heavy drafts taken by the B. Oriental. Only a short time ago we announced that over 50,000 head had been passed over from the Mesopotamia to the other side, and now it is reported that a big estanciero of Concordia has refused an offer of $4 gold per head for cows "al corte" holding out for $5, the number of head required being large.

Half a million gold was sold during the second ring in a rising market. A quarter of a million was sold for delivery tomorrow; the premium opened at 204.20%, fell to 203.50%, and closed hard at 204.20 %. One hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month, the premium closing at 206.50%. Something was done for the end of April at 210%.

The following is a summary of the operations effected to-day at the second ring:—

The Minister of the Interior signed today the degree approving the delineation of the boundary line between the province of Corrientes and the Territory of Misiones.

Government has accepted the tender of Mr. Angel Fiorini for the work of widening the entrance channel of the Riachuelo, for $408,630m/n.

The Minister of the Interior has approved the plans and estimates of the Engineers' Department for repairing the Chorrillos dike in San Luis.

Government has authorized the Engineers Department to spend $12,900 in repairing the dredges working in the ports of Entre Rios. It is not so very long since these dredges began work, yet they already want repairs.

The Minister of the Interior has authorized the Governors of the National Territories to spend whatever is necessary to feed the prisoners and the police, as the Budget has made no provision for this service. The Minister has also ordered the necessary funds to be given to the Governor of Neuquen to push forward the works on the high road from Chos-Malal to Pichachen.

Government has approved the contract made by the Engineers' Department with Mr. Angel Fiorini for erecting wharves at the entrance of the Riachuelo.

Government has accepted the proposal of Mr. Miguel Gaillard to carry the mails by diligence from Arroyo Corto to Gunmini, Carhue and General Acha, for $350 monthly.

The Minister of Finance has fixed the price of gold for payment of Custom-dues at 304 for Wednesday, March 11th.

SALES AND AUCTIONS.

Complete, total paralysis to-day. Messrs. Cesar Ramella and Co. offered a chacra of 47 hectares surrounded by Branzen, Gomez and La Plata stations, marked on the map with name of Corrales, and with reserve of $30 the hectare which seems very low, unless it be a crab-farm. But there were no buyers all the same, and the sale had to be abandoned.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

If the markets were dull, the weather was as bad; a general depression was noticed in all business circles, what the cause is still remains to be explained. On one hand one sees that the telegraphic news from Europe has improved, and on the other one notices that the driver of all business, viz, the gold premium, is steady between 300 and 304: the Eagle continues flying between these two points, and as the fluctuations have been the same for the past three days, one would imagine that operations would have followed the situation.

Business in cereals showed a falling feeling, wheat and maize came down the ladder faster than they were required. A few parcels of wheat from Entre Rios were let go in thé darsena at 7.40, the small demand in maize is already telling heavily on the article, It is whispered about that several colonists have entered the field with new maize, the offers in Rosario are 3.25 in waggon and 3.40 on board for April, but both were refused, and even the enticing bait of 25% in advance did not catch the farmers liking. Such is more or less the present situation through which cereals are passing, which, however, is entirely contradictory to the demand and rates in Europe. Linseed is labouring very hard to come to the fore, but its efforts find little help from the local buyers, who seem to wait with a cat's patience for the proper moment to spring on the article when the demand is nil.

The transactions in wool offer no change; 300,000 kilos changed hands at usual rates. The demand and competition have not revived, which does not speak much for the influence of foreign markets on our own, the latest from London report merino sucia ¼ higher and washed ½. The Antwerp markets are on for a rise, the current prize is 4.37½ francs for "type B," but several authorities are inclined to believe that a heavy demand would drive these prices to their former level. "Quien sabe": the French fabrics are operating a little too strong for even a large speculation to upset their prices or ideas on the subject. The largest buyers in fine wool, this year, have been French artistas, and it one runs back a month one will see that at that time the Germans began to compete heavily for South German fabrics.

A notice was sent round this evening that the Plaza Constitucion had cut down its tariff greatly. This market only charges now 3 dollars per ton, whereas the Central charges 2 dollars and so much percentage gold on the right of storage. The tariff on deposits for wool and skins has also been reduced.

The following were the principal sales:

An exchange gives the following news on the Sydney wool auctions on the 1st February last. The Argentine and Australian wool markets are running each other so closely, that the following will be of interest to sheep farmers and exporters:—

"At the first fortnightly wool sale there was no abatement of briskness in demand, and, following in the course of the London market, higher prices were paid for all good lots and there was spirited competition. Most of the offerings, however, were of inferior quality, and for these classes there was no improvement. During the week 18,500 bales were offered by auction, and, including private sales, 20,000 were sold. As the wool season draws to a close, the stagnation in shipping is becoming very marked, Numbers of ships are lying idle in the harbour, having failed, owing to the shortness of the clip, to get their expected loading. A leading freight broker, speaking of the matter, said:—Many ships will never get loaded unless they cancel their wool charters. In the experience of many years I have never known steamers quote a farthing to three-eighths of a penny per pound freight for wool, as they are doing this year, and such a thing as 17s 6d per ton for tallow freight was never before touched. A great deal of the trade is being diverted to foreign ports, and the tendency to yearly increasing local wool sales is largely liable for this. Foreign buyers snap up wool on the spot which formerly reached the Continent via London,

The arrivals in wheat are now assuming large proportion. The hue and cry a few weeks ago was that the supply was only sufficient for the local millers, and to-day when everyone expected to see exporters commence operating on a large scale, one sees that transactions have fallen off considerably. The hitch probably lies in the current prices; exporters prefer to wait till there is a large stock on hand, when farmers will be obliged to sell at lower rates. Telegrams from London report wheat firm at 25 and 6 pence and in Antwerp at 14¼ francs. The special barlettas fetch here from 7.80 to 8.20, but these qualities are only for the local consumo. Good classes were sold this morning at 7.50 and 7.70. In the Once 600 bags barletta were sold at 7.70.

The demand for maize has been so brisk lately that consignatarios were quite surprised to see a relapse in the article today. Yellow maize was selling at 3.00 and morocho at 2.90.

A young stranger has made its appearance in cereal circles, the youngster is still shy, but after a little chatting it was rumoured that the arrival represented the new maize crop and was busy sounding the prices of the markets and the prospects of the coming crop. The arrival is considered a little premature, so nothig was decided as to rates etc.

Linseed is firmer in London, being now quoted at 30 and 6 pence, in Antwerp the article is selling at 19¼ francs. Transactions out here are still dull; Rosario does not feel inclined to improve, the greater part of the parcels that arrive here in Once or in the Retiro are quickly picked up, but the prices are low.

The Produccion Argentina in its last number gives the following interesting figures on the movement in the Central Market up to the 4th March:—

	1895	1896	Increase
	Kilos	Kilos	Kilos
By rail.....	46,183,415	59,502,010	13,318,595
By water.....	4,585,763	8,283,705	3,697,942
By carts.....	5,472,098	9,445,632	4,073,534
	56,141,276	77,231.347	21,090,071

Stock.

4th March 1895	4th March 1896
8,865,171 kilos	12,915,255 kilos

The figures point very clearly to the large growing business of this important deposit. The sales up to 4th March amounted to 64,316,092 in comparison to 47,476,105 for the same date in the previous year. The Republic boasts of one market, and that is the Central. Trains from all parts of this vast country deposit their precious cargoes in the said centre. It is a well recognized fact that, as regards convenience for loading and unloading produce, there is no other deposit capable of competing with Central. It is in this market that the "quorum" of "artistas" is always to be found; formerly Entre Rios and Patagones wools went to Barracas, however, the increase of competition in the said market determined estancieros to send their wools to the Central.

Wheat has not changed; the tendeney if anything was for a rise. The Montevidean markets are not generally very active on Monday. Exporters and the local demand bought up some parcels of maize, prices paid were as usual. Between maize and wheat some 8,000 bags were sold, the former fetching 2.45 and 2.65 and the latter from 98 cents to 1.05.

At a late hour on Saturday, an important sale in salted hides was reported; it seems that Messrs P. San Martin and Sons, sold 2,000 steer hides of 31.25 kilos at a reserved price, but it is rumoured that 20.00 was the price. Messrs Anaya and Irigoyen also sold 192 "bordalesas" of tallow at 9.10 the 100 kilos placed on board. The sale of 4,000 salted hides in Zarate at 19¼ gold was much spoken of.

The few lots of wool that remain on hand find plenty of buyers, the prices are well upheld. The barraca Argentina sold 600 bales extra fine wool at 2.75 the 10 kilos.

RIVER STEAMERS

Rivadavia from Salto and intermediate ports, Eolo, Golondrina and Labrador from Montevideo are expected to-morrow in the South Basin.

Eolo leaves to-morrow for Montevideo.

GENERAL.

The ss. Bellova and Norwood were floated off to-day and proceeded respectively to La Plata and Antwerp.

The Spanish gun-boat Temerario will leave No. 3 Dock to-morrow for Montevideo whence she will proceed to the ports on the Rio Paraná.

The s.s. Calabro which was posted to leave Montevideo on the 15th has postponed her departure.

The Hellopes left Liverpool on the 3rd instant for this port.

The Witterkind left Bremen on the 7th instant for this port.

The R. M. S. Clyde passed St. Vincent on the 6th bound for Southampton from this port.

The only vessel which cleared yesterday was the Brasberg for Rio and Pernambuco.

The Lambert Point should to-morrow leave for La Plata to fill up; also the Buenos Aires for Montevideo to fill up for Genoa.

The Bearn is expected here to-morrow from Marseilles with 445 passengers, and the Argo from Montevideo in ballast.

The Bresil's passengers were landed at the Darsena this afternoon at 4.30.

The 81 passengers by the Iberia and 448 by the Duchesa di Galliera should on Thursday the 12th arrive in the Darsena at 7 a.m. from Flores island.

The Nord America from the La Plata port anchored to-day in that of Genoa. The Equateur from Bordeaux left Rio today for the Plate, without having shipped there any passenger. The Italie should on the 20th leave Marseilles direct for Barcelona, Montevideo and this port, thus anticipating by a month the original programme of direct voyages The Italie is posted to leave here on her return journey on the 18th April and will not touch at Brazilian ports.

The Bearn, expected here to-morrow, brings on board an Oriental sanitary guard as a passenger died in the port of Montevideo and another on board is ailing.

A fresh case, presumably of yellow fever in the person of M. Vicart, 2nd officer, is reported on board the Tiverton. The crew is said to be badly fed, which naturally does not improve their chance of escaping the disease of which several have already died. Another case "sospechoso" is also reported on board the Janet which arrived yesterday from Rio.

The Belgrano visitors on Martin Garcia continue healthy. Two of their number conveyed to the floating hospital are reported to be free from yellow fever, their companions really attacked by the fever are going on well.

KEATING'S

LOZENGES.

KEATING'S LOZENGES.
KEATING'S LOZENGES.

"A Simple Fact about" KEATING'S COUGH LOZENGES. Ask through the world, in any country that can be named, you will find them largely sold. There is absolutely no remedy that is so speedy in giving relief, so certain to cure and yet the most delicate can take them.

"A TERRIBLE COUGH."
"A TERRIBLE COUGH."

"94 Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12.

"Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly, J. HILL

UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.
UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.

The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Keating's Cough Lozenges is under stated. The operation was a specially severe one, and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. I. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense.

WEIGHT IN GOLD.
WEIGHT IN GOLD.

Under date Sept. 8th. 1891, Mr. Hill again writes:—"I should long since have been dead but for your Lozenges—they are worth their weigh in gold. I will gladly are and tell anyone what a splendid cough remedy they are."

Keating's Cough Lozenges, the unrivalled remedy for Coughs, Hoarseness, and Throat Troubles, are sold in Tins and Bottles by all Chemists.
